

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES POLICY

INTRODUCTION

Weston under Penyard Parish Council is an equal opportunities group who believes that each individual should be valued and rewarded for their contribution. We will encourage diversity amongst our members and are committed to an environment free from discrimination. All Councillors are fully committed to supporting this policy.

The Council, as a corporate body, has responsibilities as an employer, a service provider and a public authority, but both members and employees as individuals also have responsibilities as well as rights.

The Council will treat all its employees, partners and customers with dignity and respect, free from discrimination, victimisation and harassment.

DEFINITIONS:

The following definitions have been sourced via current employment legislation and advisory bodies such as the Advisory, Arbitration and Conciliation Service (ACAS).

Harassment is unwanted conduct which may create the effect (intentionally or unintentionally) of violating a person's dignity or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment which interferes with an individual's learning, working or social environment or induces stress, anxiety or sickness on the part of the harassed person.

Direct discrimination occurs when factors unrelated to merit, ability or potential of a person of group are used as an explicit reason for discriminating against them.

Discrimination takes place when an individual or a group of people is treated less favourably than others because of factors unrelated to their merit, ability or potential.

Indirect discrimination occurs when there are rules, regulations or procedures in place that have a discriminatory effect on certain groups of people

Bullying can be defined as persistent actions, criticism or personal abuse, either in public or private, which humiliates, denigrates, undermines, intimidates or injures the recipient.

Victimisation is punishing or treating an individual unfairly because they have made a complaint, or are believed to have made a complaint, or to have supported someone who has made a complaint. It is unlawful, as is post-employment victimisation.

THE COUNCIL AS AN EMPLOYER

The purpose of this policy is to provide equal opportunities to all employees or prospective employees, irrespective of their characteristics (unless there are genuine qualifications or objectively justified reasons for a different approach to be taken) We oppose all forms of unlawful and unfair discrimination, victimisation or harassment on the grounds of any protected characteristics defined in the Equality Act 2010.

All employees, whether full-time, part-time, fixed contract, agency workers or temporary, will be treated fairly and equally. Selection for employment, promotion, training, remuneration or any other benefit will be on the basis of aptitude and ability.

All employees will be helped and encouraged to develop their full potential and the talents and resources of the workforce will be fully utilised to maximise the efficiency of the council.

Every employee is entitled to a working environment that promotes dignity and respect to all. No form of intimidation, bullying or harassment will be tolerated.

The Council will encourage and develop all employees to support and carry out the requirements of the Equal Opportunities Policy.

Breaches of our Equal Opportunities Policy will be regarded as misconduct and could lead to disciplinary proceedings.

The commitment to equal opportunities in the workplace is good management practice and makes sound business sense as it seeks to utilise the talents available from the local community, representing Society as a whole.

This policy is fully supported by all Members of the council and adopts the model contract as devised by the employee professional body in the local government sector.

THE COUNCIL AS A DIRECT SERVICE DELIVERER

The Council's clients have the right to expect fair and non-discriminatory treatment whilst participating in or receiving any of the Council's services or activities. All aspects of the Council's Equal Opportunities Policy impact on the manner in which it directly delivers services to and for its residents.
